

Job Description Jury President 2010 Speed

1. Before the competition

Has overall authority in the competition area.
Checks the timetable
It is a good idea to collect mobile phone numbers: IFSC Judge, competition doctor, organisation, isolation stewards...
Plans and presides over all meetings of IFSC officials. Presides the technical meeting: makes sure he/she is fully informed about all the details of the competition before the technical meeting. Inform the team managers where the official notice board is placed.
Inspects each route with regard to safety aspects prior to start (Top rope protection points and belaying team).
Makes sure the competition doctor is in attendance.
Determines the position of the cameras (in consultation with the Chief Routesetter) and instructs the camera crew.
Makes sure that food and beverages are provided for the judging team.
Checks the isolation zone and the call zone and makes sure everything is in accordance with the rules and regulations.
Checks with the Chief Routesetter if there are any problems related to the routesetting.
Makes contact with the speaker and gives advice and direction.
New: Arrange and brief the starter and starting procedure.

2. During the competition

Is responsible for the briefing of the competitors before each round (blue crosses, boundaries...).
Answers questions of competitors during observation time.
Is responsible for the safety (can, for instance, stop a competitor).
Is responsible for the slotting after a technical incident, both in lead and boulder competitions.
Deals with appeals (convenes and chairs the Appeals Jury).
Approves and signs the final result lists.
Approves and signs the starting lists for the next round.
May issue warnings and red cards.
May request a medical check- up of a competitor and may, depending on the outcome of the check-up, stop the competitor from competing.
May permit the use of otherwise non-allowed equipment in the isolation zone (i.e. a laptop for watching DVD's...).

May allow communication between competitors and persons outside the competition area.
Verifies the planned time schedule and makes corrections if necessary.
Deals with problems among officials (please be diplomatic and discrete).
Makes sure the whole team (judges, belayers, isolation stewards, camera crew, routesetters) get good working conditions and get sufficient rest between two rounds.
New: if manual timing is used, the Jury President organizes the time recording (this used to be done by the IFSC Judge but on some speed competitions, there is no IFSC Judge).

3. After the competition

Takes all the official recordings and keeps them for 1 year. Notes in the report if there is any sequence that may be of interest for training/seminar purposes, and sends relevant tape(s) to the Director of the Rules Commission: Wim Verhoeven Grasheideweg 4 2223 Schriek Belgium
Submits a detailed report on the competition and an invoice to the IFSC Treasurer/Vice President.
Submits a detailed report about each Aspirant Judge to the IFSC Officials Commission.
Organises a debriefing for the Judges and other officials if possible.
