IFSC CLIMBING WORLD CUP WUJIANG 2014: MARKOVIC & GHISOLFI TRIUMPH ON TOUGH ROUTES IN WUJIANG, CHINA

The 2014 IFSC World Cup Asian Tour had its second stop in the Chinese city of Wujiang, the “Capital of Silk” on October 18-19, 2014. As the leaves change color and the season winds down, the race for the overall Lead and Speed rankings heated up!

Wujiang, a hub of Chinese computer and electronics manufacturing, got vertical this weekend with the IFSC Lead and Speed World Cup!

World Champions out of finals in Lead

Both Lead finals in Wujiang took place without the 2014 World Champions, Adam Ondra and Jin Kim, who both failed to make it into the top 8 in semi-finals!

The women's competition was marked by a very tough route with lots of boulder-y moves that brought down many athletes very early on. Mina Markovic (SLO) took her second gold medal in as many weeks with a score of 31+, which put her only about 3/4 of the way up the route! The podium was an exact repeat of last week's in Mokpo, with Anak Verhoeven (BEL) in second with 24+ and Hélène Janicot (FRA) in third with 20+.

For the men, neither Ondra nor last week's gold medalist Jakob Schubert made it into the finals, leaving the medals up for grabs! Early falls claimed many athletes, and in the end, Stefani Ghisolfi (ITA) won his first World Cup gold medal with a score of 36+, followed by Ramón Julian Puigblanque (ESP) in second with 36, and Romain Desgranges (FRA) in third with 34+.

2014 Speed season finale

This weekend was the grand finale of the exciting 2014 Speed season, during which we saw World Records broken three times! In the men's field, Qixin Zhong (CHN) made it back from a somewhat lackluster 2014 season to win gold in his home country, followed by Libor Hroza (CZE) and Bassa Mawem (FRA). Only 0.04 seconds separated our podium athletes this week!

For women, Mariia Krasavina (RUS) took gold, her second gold medal in China, having also won in Haiyang in June. Anouck Jaubert (FRA) was hot on her heels, only 0.03 seconds behind, and finished second, and Iuliia Kaplina (RUS) rounded out the podium in third.

The 2014 overall World Cup medals in Speed were awarded to the top-ranked climbers of the 2014 season, calculated with the scores from the World Cups only. Overall gold medals were given to Mariia Krasavina (RUS) and Danyl Boldyrev (UKR). Silver medalists were Iuliia Kaplina (RUS) and Libor Hroza (CZE), and bronze medalists were Anouck Jaubert (FRA) and Marcin Dzienski (POL).

Next stop: Inzai (JPN)

Inzai (JPN) will be the last stop on the IFSC October Asian Tour, with a Lead World Cup on October 25-26. Inhabited
