

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF SPORT CLIMBING

KOPER, SLOVENIA, AND WUJIANG, CHINA, TO HOST IFSC WORLD CUP COMPETITIONS IN 2022

PRESS RELEASE 2021/54

Torino - 14 December 2021

The International Federation of Sport Climbing (IFSC), the Alpine Association of Slovenia, and the Chinese Mountaineering Association announce that the cities of Koper, Slovenia, and Wujiang, China, will both welcome an IFSC World Cup competition in 2022.

Koper - the fifth largest city in Slovenia - will host an IFSC World Cup for the first time in history, from 2 to 3 September, continuing a long-lasting tradition that saw the city of Kranj, Slovenia, organise 25 World Cup competitions between 1996 and 2021.

After welcoming World Cup competitions for seven consecutive years - from 2013 to 2019 - Wujiang will make its return to the IFSC World Cup circuit with the 13th and closing act of the season - set to take place from 30 September to 2 October. The IFSC Lead and Speed World Cup in Bali, Indonesia, has also been rescheduled and will now take place from 24 to 26 September. The updated IFSC World Cup Series 2022 calendar is now as follows:
