BRIXEN, ITALY TO HOST RESCHEDULED IFSC BOULDER WORLD CUP IN JUNE

PRESS RELEASE 2022/13

Torino - 22 March 2022

The International Federation of Sport Climbing (IFSC) and the Federazione Arrampicata Sportiva Italiana (FASI) are pleased to announce that the Boulder World Cup event that was originally scheduled to take place in Moscow, Russia has now been rescheduled to take place in Brixen, Italy from 10 to 12 June 2022.

The IFSC Boulder World Cup Brixen 2022 will be the first IFSC event taking place in Italy since the 2019 IFSC Youth World Championships were staged in Arco; and the first IFSC World Cup since 2018.

IFSC President Marco Sclaris said:

“We are very happy that we have been able to find a replacement host for the Boulder World Cup event. I have no doubt that this event will be a great success and I want to thank our National Federation in Italy for stepping in at short notice.”

FASI Vice President Ernesto Scarperi said:

“The Italian Climbing welcomed with great enthusiasm the announcement of the IFSC Boulder World Cup taking place in Brixen. I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to the local organisers, who made the application happen in a very short time. With the state of the art Climbing Center in Brixen, and the international experience gained in the past few years, I am confident that the event will be a great success. My sincere appreciation also goes to FASI President Davide Battistella, who supported this initiative from the very beginning, and helped us in bringing the IFSC World Cup back in Italy after many years.”

News and updates about the event will be available on the IFSC website and on the Federation's social media profiles: Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.
